

Activity 1.2. Pre-training introductory self-assessment one

1. Individually, assess the difficult level of the language of writing in the table below by circling.
2. Work in fives and change your responses into a graph that refer to the pattern of your responses.

3. Individually, describe the graph in 100 words.

There are challenges that I was difficult when during these writing. Among such problem, the most difficult is unable to paraphrasing because, afraid of making errors. The next challenge that I have been challenge is unable to organize & make discussion by the reason of having limited words. Not only such problem, the other problem is unable to how to use and adjust discourse markers. In order to solve this challenge, I need training and practice to improve the skill of English language.

4. Swap your descriptions with a group mate and edit the language. What common errors did you find?
